

Trainer Profile:
Nicholas Yee-Soon Chan

Nicholas Chan is a professional motivational trainer and career management coach; he is also the founder and principal trainer of NAC Training and Coaching. He specializes in personal development and motivation, graduate and executive enhancement courses (i.e. soft skills) and designing corporate training courses.

His experience is both broad and varied, ranging from IT, logistics, teaching & lecturing and training industries. Nicholas also lectured and taught at the renowned IT institution, APIIT and has inspired students to achieve their best on their own personal ability.

He serves as the chief moderator and trainer for the Malaysian National Olympic Academy, organizing and conducting the academy's annual sessions for young sports leaders for the past 5 years. With the academy, he has trained hundreds of national and international athletes, sports managers and coaches in motivation and youth leadership.

In the year 2005, he was seconded by the Olympic Council of Malaysia to the State of Iowa in the United States to participate in a Sports Management Conference and Exchange with the Iowa State University, where he presented to and trained fellow American sports managers and trainers in the sports management culture of Malaysia.

Nicholas is an accomplished scholar and has contributed to the advancement of education and training. He is an active board member of the Malaysian National Olympic Academy, a member of the Malaysian Institute of Management (MIM) and actively involves himself in various sports & training communities around Malaysia.

Nicholas is also an accomplished endurance athlete where he completed the Ironman triathlons in 2000 and 2001.

The Revolutions Starts Today and it starts with NAC Training and Coaching!

TESTIMONIALS:

"Nicholas is a dynamic speaker who engages his participants with personal anecdotes, real life scenarios and down to earth examples. He is a powerful, professional, and passionate trainer who has a good mix of experience and enthusiasm. I remember attending his workshop on interview skills six months ago and enjoyed every minute of it. The messages he tries to drive home are motivating, meaningful and memorable. His use of creative media like video clips and other visuals are particularly effective. Most importantly, Nicholas speaks to your heart, not just your head."
